USCIS Office Closings

Monday, November 16, 2015

Español

If the office where you have an appointment is closed, then read about rescheduling.

The Manila Field Office will be closed to the public the week of November 16-20.

Due to the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Ministers and Leaders' Meetings taking place in Manila, Philippines the week of November 16 – 20, the U.S. Embassy in Manila including the USCIS Manila Field Office will be closed to the public the week of November 16 – 20.

The Manila Field Office will reopen for business on Monday, November 23.

ALERT: District 3 - New York Queens Field Office and Jackson Avenue ASC – Temporarily Closed**

Effective immediately, the Queens Field Office and Jackson Avenue Application Support Center located at 27-35 Jackson Avenue will be closed until further notice due to facilities related issues. All operations will be transferred to 26 Federal Plaza, Room 8-100, New York, NY 10278.

The following chart provides guidance on rescheduling your office or applicant support center (ASC) is closed. You should also check for more specific information about an office's rescheduling policy. Please use the Field Offices area of the website to find an individual office.

Customers are reminded that if inclement weather hinders their ability to appear at a USCIS office for an interview or appointment when that office is open, USCIS may exercise discretion to reschedule the appearance if the customers can show that their failure to appear was weather-related.

For more information or assistance, please contact your local office or call the National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283.
