Hurricane Irma:

If you couldn't attend your biometrics appointment due to Hurricane Irma, we will automatically reschedule your appointment.

- You will receive a new appointment notice by mail approximately 4 weeks from your original appointment date. If you do not receive a new appointment by mail, you may contact the National Customer Service Center (NCSC) at 800-375-5283.

If you have an emergency and cannot wait for a new appointment notice by mail, please call the NCSC or visit an ASC as a walk-in customer. However, we cannot guarantee walk-in customers will be processed on the same day, so you may have to return again on another day.

If you cannot receive mail at your location and wish to be processed at a different location, please call the NCSC or take your current appointment notice to another ASC. If you do not have a copy of your current appointment notice, any ASC can print one for you.

Rescheduling Appointments at Field Offices, International Offices and Application Support Centers

The following charts provide guidance on rescheduling when your field office, application support center (ASC) or other office has schedule changes. You should also check for more specific information about your office's or ASC's rescheduling policy by searching for your specific field office.

If inclement weather hinders your ability to appear at a USCIS office for an interview or appointment when that office is open, we may consider rescheduling your interview or appointment if you can show that your failure to appear was weather-related.

Field Offices, International Offices and Other Offices

If you	Then
Are scheduled for an interview or biometric services appointment and the USCIS office you have been scheduled for is closed	USCIS will automatically reschedule as soon as possible.
Scheduled an InfoPass or other appointment and the USCIS office you have been scheduled for is closed	You must reschedule a new appointment on your own as soon as possible.
