

Instructions for Declaration of Self-Sufficiency

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-944
OMB No. 1615-0142
Expires xx/xx/xxxx

What Is the Purpose of Form I-944?

Form I-944, Declaration of Self-Sufficiency, is used by an individual to demonstrate that he or she is not inadmissible based on the public charge ground (Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 212(a)(4)). An alien is inadmissible under INA section 212(a)(4) if he or she is more likely than not at any time in the future to receive one or more public benefits, as defined in 8 CFR 212.21(b), for more than 12 months in the aggregate within any 36-month period (such that, for instance, receipt of two benefits in one month counts as two months).

Who Must File Form I-944?

You must file this form if you are filing Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, and you are subject to the public charge ground of inadmissibility.

In general, each applicant who submits Form I-485 must submit his or her own Form I-944 if the applicant is subject to the public charge ground of inadmissibility.

How Is Form I-944 Used?

Form I-944 is used to determine whether you are inadmissible to the United States under INA section 212(a)(4) because there is a likelihood that you will become a public charge at any time in the future. We evaluate whether you are inadmissible by weighing all the positive and negative factors related to your age, health, family status, assets, resources and financial status, education and skills, prospective immigration status and period of stay. We also consider a Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the Act, if you are required to submit Form I-864 as part of your adjustment of status application. For more information on Form I-864, see www.uscis.gov/i-864.

Who Is Exempt from Filing Form I-944?

If you are exempt from the public charge ground of inadmissibility, you do not need to file Form I-944.

If you are applying for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident, you are exempt from the public charge ground of inadmissibility if you are adjusting:

1. As a VAWA self-petitioner;
2. As a Special Immigrant Juvenile;
3. As a Certain Afghan or Iraqi national;
4. As an Asylee;
5. As a Refugee;

(This exemption only applies if, at the time of the adjudication of the Form I-485, you are still in valid U nonimmigrant status. If, at the time of adjudication of the Form I-485, you are no longer in valid U nonimmigrant status, you may be required to submit a Form I-944 and a Form I-864).

8. As a victim of human trafficking (T nonimmigrant) under section 245(l) of the INA;
9. Under any category other than INA section 245(l), but you either have a pending application for T nonimmigrant status (Form I-914) that sets forth a prima facie case for eligibility, or are in valid T nonimmigrant status at the time you file your application for adjustment of status. (This exemption only applies if your Form I-914 is still pending and deemed to be prima facie eligible, or you are in valid T nonimmigrant status when we adjudicate your adjustment of status application);
10. Under the Cuban Adjustment Act;
11. Under the Cuban Adjustment Act for battered spouses and children;
12. Based on dependent status under the Haitian Refugee Immigrant Fairness Act;
13. Based on dependent status under the Haitian Refugee Immigrant Fairness Act for battered spouses and children;

General Instructions

USCIS provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>.

Signature. Each declaration must be properly signed and filed. For all signatures on this declaration, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the declaration on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent individual.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original, handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten, ink signature.

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed in the What Evidence Must You Submit and Specific Instructions sections of these Instructions. If you will be submitting the same documentation (such as tax return transcripts or birth certifications) for the I-485 or the I-864, you do not need to submit the documentation multiple times.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application, petition, or declaration. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS or the Immigration Court, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must include the translator's signature. DHS recommends the certification contain the translator's printed name, the signature date, and the translator's contact information.

If the individual is not filing an immigration benefit application with you, select "No" when asked "Is this individual filing an application for an immigration benefit with you or has this individual already filed an application?"

You will have at least one individual listed because you must include yourself.

Part 3. Your and Your Household Members' Assets, Resources, and Financial Status

Your assets, resources, and financial status are factors USCIS considers when deciding whether you are inadmissible based on the public charge ground.

Household Income

Item Number 1. Household Income. List your and your household members' annual gross (total) income from the most recent federal income tax returns, if any.

We will consider your household annual gross income, which includes your annual gross income, and any additional annual gross income from your household members listed in Part 2.

Your household's annual gross income should be at least 125 percent (100 percent if you are on active duty, other than in training, in the U.S. Armed Forces) of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for the most recent year as set by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) for the household size you listed in Part 2. See <https://aspe.hhs.gov/poverty-guidelines>.

If your household annual gross income is less than 125 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines based on your household size listed in Part 2, you may demonstrate that the total value of your household's assets and resources is five times the difference between your household's annual gross income and 125 percent (100 percent if you are on active duty, other than in training, in the U.S. Armed Forces) of the Federal Poverty Guideline for your household size. However, if you are:

1. The spouse or child (who has reached the age of 18) of a U.S. citizen: You have to show that the value of your assets is at least three times the difference between your household's annual gross income and 125 percent (100 percent if you are on active duty, other than in training, in the U.S. Armed Forces) of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for your household size.
2. An orphan who will be adopted in the United States after you acquire permanent residence (or your parents will seek a formal recognition of the adoption abroad) and you will acquire citizenship under INA 320: You have to show that the value of your assets exceeds the difference between your household's annual gross income and 125 percent (100 percent if you are on active duty, other than in training, in the U.S. Armed Forces) of the Federal Poverty Guideline for your household size.

Provide the information regarding assets and resources in Item Number 9.

You must provide an IRS transcript(s) of your Federal income tax returns for the most recent tax year and the IRS transcript(s) of the household members whose income you are including. For information on obtaining federal income tax transcripts without a fee, see <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>. You may also use IRS Form 4506-T to request tax transcripts from the IRS. You are not required to have the IRS certify the transcript or photocopy unless we specifically instruct you to do so; a plain transcript is acceptable.

If you are filing Form I-944 between January 1 and April 15 of any year, and you and/or your household members have not yet filed the current year's federal income tax return, submit IRS transcripts for the most recent tax year. At the time of interview on your application, an officer may request the tax return transcripts for the current tax year. Submit any tax transcripts for any income taxes that you or your household members filed with any foreign government if you or your household members were residing outside of the United States during any time within the most recent tax year and you were not required to file a federal individual income tax return with the United States government.

If you are a child (under the age of 21 and unmarried) and are listed as a dependent on your parents' income tax return, or if you are listed as a dependent on anyone else's income tax return, list the total income from that individual's tax returns and submit that individual's IRS tax transcripts for the most recent federal tax year in accordance with the instructions above.

If you were not required to file a federal income tax return in any of the prior three tax years, you may provide Form W-2 or a Social Security Statement providing a history of total annual income (gross income). If you provide a W-2 or Social Security Statement provide the listed wages, tips, or other compensation.

If you need extra space to complete this section, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information.

Item Number 6. Additional Income. If you or your household members received additional income on a continuing weekly, monthly or annual basis for the most recent tax year (for example, child support, unemployment benefits) and the income was NOT included in your or your household member's tax return transcript, provide the amount of additional income and all information requested. For information on non-taxable income see <https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p525.pdf>. Also, provide evidence of the additional income from any source in the United States or outside the United States in U.S. dollars.

Do not list income from any public benefits, as defined in 8 CFR 212.21(b) that you or your household members received as it is not counted towards income. Do not list any income listed in Item Number 1., Household Income.

Item Numbers 7. and 8. Identify whether any of the additional income comes from an illegal activity or source such as proceeds from illegal gambling or illegal drug sales or other activities and identify the amount.

Your Household's Assets and Resources

Item Number 9. Assets. List only the assets that can be converted into cash within 12 months. Provide the value of any asset held in the United States or outside the United States, in U.S. dollars.

If you or a household member owns a home, you may include the net value of your or the household member's home as an asset. The net value of the home is the appraised value of the home, minus the sum of all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home. If you wish to include the net value of your or your household member's home, then you must include documentation demonstrating that you or the household member owns it, a recent appraisal by a licensed appraiser, and evidence of the amount of all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home.

You may not include the net value of an automobile unless you or your household member shows that you or your household member have/has more than one automobile, and at least one automobile is not included as an asset.

If you list assets or resources, submit evidence of the value of your or your household member(s)'s assets. You must include the name of the asset holder, a description of the asset, proof of ownership, and the basis for the owner's claim of its net cash value. Evidence of assets and resources include:

1. Checking and savings account statements;
2. Annuities;
3. Stocks and bonds (cash value)/certificates of deposit;
4. Retirement accounts and educational accounts;
5. Net cash value of real estate holdings; and
6. Any other evidence of substantial assets that can be easily converted into cash.

For checking and savings accounts, you must provide account statements from the bank(s) covering at least 12 months prior to filing the application. You can also provide any documentation from the household members' assets. For additional information, see www.uscis.gov/greencard/public-charge.

Liabilities/Debts

Item Number 10. Liabilities/Debts. Provide a list of all your liabilities or debts. Examples of liabilities and debts include mortgages, car loans, unpaid child or spousal support, unpaid taxes, and credit card debt. Provide documentation for each liability or debt.

Credit Report and Score

Item Numbers 11. - 12. Credit Card Score and Report. USCIS will review your U.S. credit report and the credit score submitted with your declaration, if available, to review your financial status. If it is available, identify the latest credit score number.

You can obtain a free credit report once a year under the Fair Credit Reporting Act from each one of the three credit reporting agencies. You are only required to provide one credit report from any of the three credit reporting agencies. See <https://www.usa.gov/credit-reports> for more information. If there are any errors in the credit report, you should provide evidence from the credit reporting agency that demonstrates that you reported the error and that the error is under investigation or has been resolved.

If you have any negative history in your credit report, you may provide an explanation in the designated area of this form. Negative credit history may include delinquent accounts, debt collections, charge-offs (delinquent accounts deemed unlikely to be collected), repossession, foreclosure, judgments, tax liens, or bankruptcy on your credit report.

If you do not have a credit report or credit score, provide documentation that demonstrates that you do not have a credit report or score with a credit bureau. You may provide evidence of continued payment of bills if there is no credit report or credit score.

Item Number 14. Bankruptcy. Indicate whether or not you have ever filed for bankruptcy. If you answered "Yes," list all the times you filed for bankruptcy, including the type (if filed in the United States), place of filing and the date of the bankruptcy. Provide evidence of the resolution of each bankruptcy, if available.

Health Insurance

Item Number 15. Health Insurance. If you currently have health insurance, provide the following:

1. For each policy, a copy of each policy page showing the terms and type of coverage and individuals covered; or

3. The latest Form 1095-B, Health Coverage; Form 1095-C, Employer-Provided Health Insurance Offer and Coverage (if available) with evidence of renewal of coverage for the current year.

A health insurance card is insufficient without effective and expiration dates. If you answered "No," to Item Number 15, proceed to Item D.

Item A. Indicate whether or not you have received a Premium Tax Credit or Advanced Premium Tax Credit Tax Credit for your health insurance. Provide a transcript copy of the IRS Form 8963, Premium Tax Credit (PTC), and a copy of Form 1095A, Health Insurance Marketplace Statement.

If you answer “Yes,” provide a letter or other evidence from the insurance company showing that you have enrolled in or have a future enrollment date for a health insurance plan. The letter or other evidence must include the terms, the type of coverage, that you are the individual covered, and the date when the coverage begins.

If you answered “No,” you may provide information on how you plan to pay for reasonably anticipated medical costs.

If you have federally funded Medicaid for health insurance, please include the benefit in Item Numbers 15. and 16.

USCIS reviews Form I-693, Report of Medical Examination and Vaccination Record, or Form DS-2053, Medical Examination for Immigrant or Refugee Applicant, to determine whether you have a medical condition that will affect your ability to work, attend school, or care for yourself.

You may provide any documentation that may outweigh any negative factors related to a medical condition, including but not limited to, information provided by a civil surgeon or a panel physician on a medical examination. You may also provide an attestation from your treating physician regarding the prognosis of any medical condition and whether this medical condition impacts your ability to work or go to school. You may also provide evidence of sufficient assets and resources to pay the costs of any reasonably anticipated medical treatment.

Public Benefits

Item Number 16. Application, Receipt or Certification of Public Benefits.

Please provide the information requested about your (the alien’s) application or certification for, or receipt of, public benefits. Please provide all requested information about each public benefit regardless of amount or duration, as USCIS will calculate the duration of the public benefit. If you received public benefits intermittently throughout the year, provide each instance separately. For example, if you received SNAP from January to February and June to December, provide the information as two separate instances. If you require additional space, please use the space provided in Part 9.

Additional Information.

Receipt means when a benefit-granting agency provides or has provided a public benefit to you whether in the form of cash, voucher, services, or insurance coverage. USCIS will only consider the amount received by or attributable to the alien.

In the space provided, indicate whether you have ever received, currently receive, or are currently certified to receive any of the following public benefits. (You must respond even if you fall within one of categories of individuals for whom receipt of public benefits will not be considered – see the table below for evidence that must be provided to document that you qualify for the exemption). Please select all that apply.

If you are not currently certified to receive any public benefits, please select that option.

In the space provided, indicated whether you have ever applied for a public benefit listed above but your application was denied or rejected; provide documentation of the denial or rejection.

As part of the public charge inadmissibility determination under INA section 212(a)(4), we will generally consider any past, current receipt, or certification of future receipt of public benefits.

For hearings before the Immigration Court: Interpreters are provided, at the government's expense, to individuals whose comprehension of the English language is inadequate to fully understand and participate in removal proceedings. In general, the Immigration Court endeavors to accommodate the language needs of all respondents and witnesses. The Immigration Court will arrange for an interpreter both during the individual calendar hearing and, if necessary, the master calendar hearing. The Immigration Court is also committed to addressing the needs of individuals with disabilities and/or impairments. If your case is pending before the Immigration Court, you should notify the court of any such need before your first hearing with an immigration judge. The Immigration Court considers all requests to address such needs on a case-by-case basis.
