NALEO Educational Fund, the nation’s leading non-partisan, non-profit organization that facilitates the Latino community’s participation in American civic life, is once again partnering with American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), The New Americans Campaign, Citizenshipworks, and the National Partnership for New Americans to celebrate AILA Citizenship Day on Saturday, September 21, 2024. The organization is seeking to partner with practicing immigration attorneys, law students, and other legal professionals to host a telephonic U.S. citizenship eligibility screening via its 888-839-8682 hotline between the hours of 7am-3pm PST/ 9am –5pm CST/ 10am-6pm EST.

As part of this telephonic eligibility screening, media partners will promote the opportunity in the weeks and days before Saturday, September 21st to invite community members to call the hotline to check if they are eligible to apply for U.S. citizenship and inquire about the application process. Legal professionals affiliated with AILA will answer calls from community members to conduct an eligibility screening and refer callers to existing community events to assist them with their citizenship applications. NALEO Educational Fund staff will be on hand to troubleshoot and will offer trainings in the days before Saturday, September 21st. Individuals interested in volunteering for this screening event must be able to communicate in English and Spanish and must complete this registration form.
