SIX-MONTH CLUB UPDATE

Visitors traveling to the United States are required to be in possession of passports that are valid for six months beyond the period of their intended stay in the United States. Citizens of the countries listed below are exempt the six-month rule and need only have a passport valid for their intended period of stay.

Below you will find the current list of Six-Month Club members. This update supersedes the list currently found on page 19 in the CBP's 2014 Carrier Information Guide. Kuwait has been removed from the list.
