MEMORANDUM FOR: Directors, Field Operations
Director, Preclearance Operations
Office of Field Operations

FROM: (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) (b) (6), (b) (7)(C)
Acting Executive Director
Admissibility and Passenger Programs

SUBJECT: New Disposition Code for (b) (7)(E)

Significant Public Benefit Paroles (SPBP) are temporary measures used to support law enforcement efforts by providing a legal mechanism for aliens (b) (7)(E)

(b) (7)(E)

(b) (7)(E) The issuance of all SPBP is governed by the Significant Public Benefit Parole Protocols signed by Commissioner Robert C. Bonner on January 31, 2006. (b) (7)(E)

(b) (7)(E) are covered under section (b) (7)(E) The (b) (7)(E) (b) (7)(E)

(b) (7)(E) The standard operating procedure (SOP) for issuing and processing paroles has not changed. This memo outlines the modifications made to CBP operating systems to support the (b) (7)(E) in regards to the automated I-94.

On May 14, 2013, the Office of Field Operations (OFO) completed the automation of Form I-94 at air and sea ports of entry. As part of the automation process, arriving aliens can access their most recent I-94 record on the www.cbp.gov/i94. Although automation was implemented in the air and sea ports of entry only, all I-94s, including those issued at land border ports of entry, can be located on the website. (b) (7)(E)

(b) (7)(E)

Effective immediately, when a port of entry authorizes a (b) (7)(E) disposition should be selected as the disposition code during the inspection close out. The (b) (7)(E) disposition code will create an I-94 record, but (b) (7)(E) the I-94 record on the I-94 website. The (b) (7)(E) code does not assign an admit until date in the system. The admit until date must be entered by the officer in accordance with existing SOPs.

Please ensure that this memorandum is disseminated to all ports of entry within your jurisdiction. Should you have any questions or require additional information, please contact (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) Director, Enforcement Programs Division, at (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) or (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) Supervisory CBP Officer, Enforcement Programs Division, at (b) (6), (b) (7)(C)
