New U.S. Employment Authorization Cards

- On January 30, 2023, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) began producing the redesigned U.S. Employment Authorization Cards.
- The redesigned cards will be issued concurrently with existing card stock until it is depleted.
- All previously issued cards remain valid until their printed expiration dates.

If you have a question on boarding a traveler, it should be directed to the appropriate Regional Carrier Liaison Group (RCLG), Immigration Advisory Program (IAP) Officer or Joint Security Program (JSP) Officer.
