USCIS Tech Talks: Keeping Families Together Engagement Series Learn How to File A Request

On Aug. 22, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services will begin hosting a series of engagements, in English and Spanish, to review the Keeping Families Together process and how to complete Form I-131F, Application for Parole in Place for Certain Noncitizen Spouses and Stepchildren of U.S. Citizens. This engagement series is open to anyone who wants to learn how to submit a request under the Keeping Families Together process. During these engagements, we will demonstrate how to submit the Form I-131F through a USCIS online account, including the functionalities in the account. Future engagements will focus on frequently asked questions and other aspects of online filing.

Visit our Keeping Families Together page and our frequently asked questions page for more information about the process and eligibility requirements.

No registration is required for these engagements:

- Thursday, Aug. 22 from 2-2:45 p.m. Eastern in English

- Thursday, Aug. 29 from 2-2:45 p.m. Eastern in Spanish

We encourage you to submit questions in advance using the Teams Live link for the event. To submit a question when you are in Teams Live, click on the Q&A icon and enter your question.

To request a disability accommodation to participate in USCIS' engagements, email us at public.engagement@uscis.dhs.gov by Aug. 20 at 5 p.m. Eastern and put in the subject line, "Aug. 22 Tech Talk in English" or by Aug. 22 at 12 p.m. Eastern and put in the subject line, "Aug. 29 Tech Talk in Spanish."

Note to media:

This webinar is not for press purposes. Please contact the USCIS Press Office at media@uscis.dhs.gov for any media inquiries.

We look forward to your participation!
