Hello Everyone. Thank you for joining today's webinar where we will review concurrent online filing of Form I-821D for DACA renewals and Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization.

During our time together I will briefly review the current status of the DACA policy and explain who can submit Form I-821D online. We'll show you how to create a USCIS online account and how to submit Form I-821D concurrently with Form I-765. We'll show you how to navigate your account and the online form, how to complete your forms, and how to upload evidence. We'll talk about formatting requirements for evidence, and lastly, we'll show you all the benefits you'll receive from having a USCIS online account.

DHS is complying with the July 16, 2021, court order issued in State of Texas, et al., v. United States, et al.

- Individuals whose DACA requests were granted prior to this decision continue to have DACA while their individual grant remains valid and may continue to request and receive DACA renewal grants and employment authorization.
- Current DACA recipients may continue to apply for and receive advance parole documents.

Current Status of DACA Policy

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

We accept initial and renewal
DACA
requests

We cannot approve
initial DACA requests or related work authorization at this time

- We continue to accept initial DACA requests (using the paper form) and renewal DACA requests (using the paper or online form) and associated Forms I-765 and I-765WS.
- However, we cannot approve any initial DACA requests or associated requests for work authorization.
- We follow existing policy when approving or denying renewal DACA requests.

7

Consistent with the district court order, we continue to accept initial DACA requests (using the paper version of form I-821D) and renewal DACA requests (using the paper form OR online filing of Form I-821D), as well as the required concurrent filing of Forms I-765 and I-765WS. However, under the July 16, 2021 order, we are prohibited from granting any initial DACA requests and accompanying requests for employment authorization. Also consistent with that order, we will continue to grant or deny renewal DACA requests, according to existing policy.

Who Can be Considered for Renewal of DACA

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

Renewal Considerations:

- Must have met Initial DACA guidelines
- Have not left the U.S. on or after Aug. 15, 2012, without advance parole
- Continuously resided in U.S. since submitted last approved DACA request until present
- Have not been convicted of a disqualifying crime and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety

8

Only those who previously received DACA will be able to file using the online Form I-821D. Individuals who are requesting DACA for the first time will have to submit a paper form until we roll out Phase 2 for online filing of new initial DACA requests.

Let's discuss who can submit DACA renewals using online Form I-821D:

An individual may be considered for Renewal of DACA if they've met the guidelines for consideration of Initial DACA and they:

- Did not depart the United States on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- Have continuously resided in the United States since they submitted their most recent request for DACA that was approved up to the present time;
- Have not been convicted of a disqualifying crime: felony offense, a significant misdemeanor offense, or three or more other misdemeanor offenses, and does not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

Submitting I-821D and I-765 Together

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

Select the form you want to file online.

I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA)

Use this form to request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). Deferred action is a discretionary determination to defer removal action of an individual as an act of prosecutorial discretion.

Applicants filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765 Worksheet, Form I-765WS. You must fill out the paper Form I-765WS and upload the completed copy with your application.

Learn more about DACA.

Concurrent filing available

We will present Form I-765 for you to complete after you sign Form I-821D. This will allow you to submit both forms at the same time.

Start form

- To submit Forms I-821D and I-765 together (concurrent filing) you will fill out Form I-821D first.
- Once Form I-821D is complete, the system will ask you to fill out Form I-765.

14

Here is where you would choose Form I-821D from the dropdown where you see the red arrow. Filing Form I-821D also requires concurrent filing for Form I-765 and I-765WS – the worksheet portion of Form I-765. We will not consider deferring action in your case unless your Form I-821D is accompanied by Form I-765, with fees, and Form I-765WS. If you do not include Form I-765 & I-765WS with your Form I-821D as well as all applicable fees, you will not be able to submit your forms.

There is no cost for submitting online Form I-821D. However, the cost for filing Form I-765 is $495, including the biometrics fee, and cannot be waived.

When filing Form I-821D online, you can complete all three forms in your USCIS online account, and sign and pay all at once. Filing online also means you cannot forget to sign or pay for your form before submitting.

I-821D, Consideration Of Deferred Action For Childhood Arrivals (DACA)

Use this form to request consideration of Renewal of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA). Deferred action is a discretionary determination to defer removal action of an individual as an act of prosecutorial discretion.

Anyone who receives deferred action will not be placed into removal proceedings or removed from the United States for a specified period of time, unless the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) chooses to terminate the deferral. USCIS considers deferring action (including renewal of deferred action) on a case-by-case basis.

Requesters filing Form I-821D must also file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, and Form I-765 Worksheet, Form I-765WS. You must fill out the paper Form I-765WS and upload the completed copy with your application.

Before You Start Your Request

Eligibility

You may file online only if you are submitting a renewal request. If you are submitting an initial request for DACA, you must submit a paper Form I-821D.

15

The form overview page explains who is eligible to file the form, the cost of filing, highlights certain documents you can provide, and outlines the required DACA biometrics. It discusses what happens after you submit your request, such as tracking your case, responding to requests from us for information, and informs you about the decision process.

Quick Tips

-  Online form is the same as paper version
-  Form logic based on your answers, starts at the beginning
-  Answer as many questions as you can
-  Work at your own pace, we automatically save your answers
-  Draft forms are saved for 30 days from the last time you worked on your form

16

The form overview page provides helpful information about navigating the form online. The online form and paper form gather the same information. The form overview page tells you to answer all questions in the Getting Started section first. This way, we can customize the rest of the form's questions with conditional logic. The answers you provide determine the questions you'll be asked later. It is important to start at the beginning of an online form and follow it to the end. Don't jump around and never skip any questions.

We automatically save answers so you can work at your own pace. You can sign out and resume working anytime. If you do not work on your application for more than 30 days, we will delete your data in order to prevent storing personal information indefinitely.

All our online forms have a left rail navigation with drop downs that show you the different subject sections. It's a vertical list of topics.

The system saves your answers automatically as you move from section to section in your form. The dropdown arrows you see to the right of each section on this screenshot will collapse and expand to show you the subsections of the form.

The left rail navigation of the online form has six sections and subsections showing the categories of questions you'll be asked. They are:

- Getting Started
- About You
- Moral Character
- Evidence
- Additional Information, and
- Review and Submit

We recommend that you submit as complete a filing as possible. Review each question to see if it applies to you. The online form automatically saves your answers as you move from section to section. You should start at the beginning and move to the end without skipping any sections. Our forms have what's called "conditional logic" built into them. This means that your answers to some questions determine the questions that are asked later. For example, if you indicate you never served in the military, you will not be asked to list your branch of service.

Reason for Applying

To submit this form online...

You must request a DACA renewal

I am requesting:

Renewal Request - Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals

For this Renewal request, my most recent period of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals expires:

---

You should submit your renewal request 150 to 120 days before your current DACA expires

You must state your reason for completing Form I-821D. You must request a DACA renewal to submit this form online.

PLEASE NOTE: USCIS strongly encourages you to file your renewal request within the recommended 150-120 day filing period to minimize the possibility that your current period of DACA will expire before you receive a decision on your renewal request. Filing more than 150 days in advance could result in an overlap between your current DACA and your renewal. This means your renewal period may extend for less than a full two years from the date that your current DACA period expires.

Evidence

Evidence ^

Proof of identity

Proof of arrival

Established residency

Continuous residence

Proof of presence

Status

Brief departures

Education

Military service

Proof Of Identity

Upload proof of your identity. Examples of documents you may submit include copies of your:

- Passport;
- Birth certificate accompanied by photo identification;
- Any national identity document from your country of origin that includes your photo and/or fingerprint;
- Any U.S. government immigration or other document bearing your name and photograph (e.g., EADs, visas, driver's licenses, non-driver cards);
- Any school-issued form of identification with photo;
- Military identification document with photo;
- State-issued photo ID showing date of birth; or
- Any other document with photo that you believe is relevant.

Note: Expired documents are acceptable.

File requirements

- Clear and readable
- Accepted file formats: JPG, JPEG, PDF, TIF or TIFF
- No encrypted or password-protected files
- If your documents are in a foreign language, upload a full English translation and the translator's certification with each original document.
- Upload no more than five documents at a time
- Accepted file name characters: English letters, numbers, spaces, periods, hyphens, underscores, and parentheses
- Maximum size: 6MB per file

Choose or drop files here to upload

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration
Services

For renewal requests:

- Do not resubmit documents you already submitted with your initial DACA request.
- You MUST send any new evidence relating to removal proceedings or criminal history.

19

If you are submitting a Renewal Request, you do not need to re-submit documents you already submitted with your previous, initial DACA request. You only need to submit new documents pertaining to removal proceedings or criminal history that you never submitted before. If we need more information from you, we will send a Request for Evidence to you explaining what we need.

You should submit new documents if:

- You are currently in exclusion, deportation, or removal proceedings (please note: you do not need to submit these documents if your case was administratively closed); or
- You have been charged with, or convicted of, a felony or misdemeanor. You do not need to submit these documents if you already submitted them with a previous DACA request. You should keep all documents that support how you meet the DACA guidelines so you can provide them if we ask for them.

Always follow the file requirements shown on the evidence upload section, as you see here. The top error we see is requestors saving their files in the wrong format, including prohibited characters in the file name, or the file size was too large. We added these instructions to better explain the requirements so you can avoid this pain point.

Here's what the evidence formatting requirements are: The only permitted characters for file names are: English letters, numbers, spaces, periods, hyphens, underscores, and parentheses. No special characters, no foreign language characters – only English letters.

What you see here on the right side of the screen is an example of the message the online account will give if you make a mistake with the file format or naming convention. The system will not allow the document to upload until this is corrected. Always review the format requirements...this will save you frustration.

Your fee

i Your form filing fee is: $0

Refund Policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Alerts and warnings

Online forms have three alerts

- Red alert = hard stop
- Yellow alert = soft stop
- Green alert = no errors found

After you've uploaded your evidence, the last section you'll come to is Review and Submit. This is where you will see the form filing fee and you will have the opportunity to correct any errors in your form.

You need to check your request before you submit it to be sure you've provided all required information. If you haven't, you'll see a red alert. This is a hard stop. You cannot submit your request without addressing these issues. If you see a yellow alert, this means we would like you to provide the information, but it won't stop you from submitting your request. If you see a green alert, that means you're clear to sign and submit your request.

You must file Form I-765 Worksheet to demonstrate that you have an economic necessity to work. We will review your current annual income, your current annual expenses, and the total current value of your assets. You do not need to include other household members' financial information to establish your own economic necessity.

You will need to complete a paper Form I-765WS and upload it as a document to your account. Please be sure to follow our file requirements so your form will upload successfully. The screenshot on the right shows what a successful upload looks like if the file requirements are followed.

The screenshot displays the 'Additional Information' section of the I-765 application form. On the left, a navigation menu lists 'Getting Started', 'About You', 'Evidence', 'Additional Information', 'Additional information', and 'Review and Submit'. The 'Additional Information' section is active, showing instructions: 'If you need to provide any additional information for any of your answers to the questions in this form, enter it into the space below. You should include the questions that you are referencing. If you do not need to provide any additional information, you may leave this section blank.' Below the instructions are three dropdown menus: 'Section' (set to 'Evidence'), 'Page' (set to 'Proof of identity'), and 'Question' (set to 'Proof of Identity'). A text input field contains the text 'I provided proof of identity and nationality.' and is followed by a character count '45/500'. At the bottom are 'Save response' and 'Cancel' buttons. The USCIS logo and 'U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services' are in the top right corner.

Under the additional information section, you'll have an opportunity to provide us with clarification or additional information. This section can be helpful in providing additional information about your answers in the Getting Started, About You or Evidence sections. From the available dropdowns, you can choose one of those three sections, the appropriate page and exact question. You can also use the free text field to write a narrative in 500 characters or less. There is no limit to the number of submissions in this section.

Review Your Form

Check your application before you submit

We will review your application to check for accuracy and completeness before you submit it.

We encourage you to provide as many responses as you can throughout the application, to the best of your knowledge. Missing information can slow down the review process after you submit your application.

You can return to this page to review your application as many times as you want before you submit it.

Your fee

i Your form filing fee is: $495

Refund Policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service.

Alerts and warnings

✓ We found no alerts or warnings in your application

29

Before you submit your form, the system will review it to make sure it's complete and accurate. The part of your process will show you how much you need to pay for your forms. It will also alert you if we need any more information, such as a question you didn't answer. If you receive the green alert you see here, you can move on by checking the box to attest that you read and understand English, and sign your form by typing your name in the box - just as you did for Form I-821D. You will then move forward with paying and submitting your form.

Please note: Once you pay and submit Form I-765, your form will be locked, and no further changes can be made. Please make sure the information on your Form I-765 is complete and accurate before continuing. If you need to make any edits after finishing, you will need to create both a new Form I-821D and a new Form I-765. Next, you will continue to the pay and submit page where you can pay for and submit both your Form I-821D and Form I-765 at the same time.

Case card has three tabs: Case status, Case history, and Documents

32

One of the best features of your account is contained in your case card. A case card is automatically created for each form you submit. A case card contains three tabs: case status, case history, and the documents tab. The case status tab is linked to our case status online page. This tab shows the same current case status information that would show on our case status web page. Your receipt number is also listed here as well as a link to the pdf version of your completed form, which contains an “Electronic Only Watermark.”

If you've created a profile and you have a pending case, you can also choose to edit your account information from the settings option in your account profile. You can:

- Change the email address associated with the account
- Change how you receive the one-time verification code
- Change your password and the password reset questions and answers
- You can also provide an optional recovery email address, which can be used to reset your password if you lose access to your primary email account.
- By editing the backup code portion of your account, you can generate a new backup code or export as a .pdf for your records.
- You can also see a historical view of when you accessed your account and what device was used at that time. You can also see what profile changes were made to your account as well as the date and time of those changes.

You CANNOT edit your name, date of birth, A-Number, or Online Account Number after you submit a case.

Remember to update your address so you receive all notices and documents about your case. You can update your address in your account profile. And you also must notify us using our Change of Address tool using the URL you see here.

Another great feature of the USCIS online account is the ability to delete an account by choosing the "Delete Your Account" button.

Accounts can only be deleted if:

- They have not created a profile
- They have no pending cases
- There is no data in the account

Questions?

And with that, we will move into our question and answer session. We may not be able to address every question. We will try to address as many questions as possible.

We ask that you please limit your questions to the scope of today's topic, online filing for Form I-821D with concurrent filing for Form I-765. We invite you to share any other comments or general feedback on this engagement with us at: Public.Engagement@uscis.dhs.gov.

Again, our subject matter experts today will not be able to respond to any questions regarding interpretations of policy, or that may pertain to pending litigation against USCIS. Nor can they respond to any case-specific questions.
