November 26, 2024. The Department of Labor (Department) Announces a Webinar for H-2A and H-2B filers to help them understand their responsibilities under anti-discrimination laws.

The Department, in conjunction with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), will be hosting a webinar on December 9, 2024, from 1:00 to 2:30 pm EST for the H-2A and H-2B filing communities that will discuss the importance of compliance with program requirements and their responsibilities under federal law, including anti-discrimination laws enforced by the EEOC. During the webinar, the EEOC will provide an overview of anti-discrimination laws, examples of unlawful fact patterns, and information for the public on how to refer suspected federal law violations and program noncompliance to the appropriate enforcement agencies.

To ensure we have sufficient space to accommodate all interested attendees, we ask that you pre-register at the webinar link below.
